For Jesus is our Hope: Through His merciful Heart, as through an open gate, we pass through to heaven (Diary, 1570), Amen.

IX. Prayer to St. Joseph
O Saint Joseph, Foster Father of Jesus Christ and True Spouse of the Virgin Mary, pray for us and for those who will die this day (or night). Amen.

Why the Chaplet for the Sick and Dying?

“GOD AND SOULS” is the motto of St. Maria Faustina of the Most Blessed Sacrament. One of the elements of the devotion that Jesus desired St. Faustina to spread is called the Divine Mercy Chaplet. He wants it to be offered especially for sinners and for the dying. Jesus is quoted in St. Faustina’s Diary as saying:

Pray as much as you can for the dying. By your entreaties [that is, insistence, prayers] obtain for them trust in My mercy, because they have most need of trust, and have it the least. Be assured that the grace of eternal salvation for certain souls in their final moment depends on your prayer. You know the whole abyss of My mercy, so draw upon it for yourself and especially for poor sinners. Soon would heaven and earth turn into nothingness than would My mercy not be offered especially for sinners and for the dying person, not as the just Judge but as the merciful Savior (Diary, 1541).

Earlier, Our Lord said to her:

At the hour of their death, I defend as My own glory every soul that will say this chaplet; or when others say it for a dying person, the indulgence is the same (Diary, 811).

Saint Faustina comments: “Oh, if only everyone realized how great the Lord’s mercy is and how much we all need that mercy, especially at that crucial hour!” She wrote these words upon hearing God the Father say with-in her. When this chaplet is said by the bedside of a dying person, divine wrath is placated, unfathomable mercy envelopes the soul, and the very depths of My tender mercy are moved for the sake of the sorrowful Passion of My Son (Diary, 811).

What if the person prays from a distance?

Saint Faustina had a love for the sick and dying, and prayed for them with great fervor. The Lord gave many promises regarding recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet at the bedside of the sick and dying. The following experiences recorded in her Diary make it clear that one does not have to be at the bedside physically. She wrote:

“It sometimes happens that the dying person is in the second or third building away, yet for the spirit, space does not exist. It sometimes happens that I know about a death occurring several hundred kilometers away. This has happened several times with regard to my family and relatives and also sisters in religion, and even souls whom I have not known during their lifetime” (Diary, 835).

And again: “My contact with the dying is, just as it has been in the past, very close. I often accompany a person who is dying far away; but my greatest joy is when I see the promise of mercy fulfilled in these souls. The Lord is faithful: What He once ordains — He fulfills” (Diary, 935).

Recitation of the Chaplet during Eucharistic Adoration

This intention is particularly relevant for Eucharistic adorers. In chapels worldwide, they are praying the chaplet for the sick and dying and are part of an International Registry established by the Eucharistic Apostles of The Divine Mercy.

On the occasion of the Great Jubilee of the year 2000, the Holy Father, Pope John Paul II, by a personally signed parchment, imparted a special Apostolic Blessing “to all the faithful, who during Adoration of Our Most Merciful Savior in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the altar will be praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet for the sick and for those throughout the world who will be dying in that hour.” The Apostolic Blessing extends indefinitely for all who participate. The prayer program contained in this pamphlet is offered as one way adorers might pray for the sick and dying during adoration using the Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

I am offering people a vessel with which they are to keep coming for graces to the fountain of mercy. That vessel is this image with the signature: “Jesus, I Trust in You.”

(From the Diary of St. Faustina, 927)
I. Intention of Prayer Program
For the sick, suffering and all who will die today especially those unprepared for death.

II. Prayer for Souls in Need
Eternal Father, I offer You the most Precious Blood of Your Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal Church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen.

III. Litany of Reparation
Lord, have mercy on us.
Christ, have mercy on us.
Lord, have mercy on us.
Christ, graciously hear us.
God, the Father of Heaven, have mercy on us.
God the Son, Mediator between God and man, spare us, O Lord.
God the Holy Spirit, Enlightener of hearts, have mercy on us.
For the coldness of Your children, for the sacrileges which profane Your Sacrament.
For the infamous discourses made in Your holy temples, for the irreverence of Christians, for the abuse of Your grace, for their contempt of Your loving invitations, for the infidelity of those who call themselves Your friends.
For Your loving death, for Your loving imprisonment, for Your long waiting at the door of our hearts, for Your loving sighs, for Your loving tears, for Your loving presence, for Your loving body, for Your loving heart, for Your loving death.
For the abuse of Your grace, for the Abuse of Your grace.
For the sacrifice of Love, for the coldness of Your children.
For Your loving heart, for Your loving body, for Your loving death, for the conversion of poor sinners.
For the sacredles which profane Your Sacrament of Love.
For our unfaithfulness, for our delay in loving You, for our tepidity in Your holy service, for Your bitter sadness at the loss of souls.
For Your splendid tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences by which He is offended, and by the infidelities of His Most Sacred Heart and through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg the conversion of poor sinners.

IV. Prayer of Reparation
Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly and I offer You the Most Precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all the tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences by which He is offended, and by the infidelities of His Most Sacred Heart and through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg the conversion of poor sinners.

V. An Act of Spiritual Communion
My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to possess You within my soul. Since I am unable now to receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as being already there, and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

VI. The Divine Mercy Chaplet
Recite on ordinary rosary beads (Haur, 476)

The Our Father
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

The Hail Mary*
Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you! Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus, Mary Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed*
I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit, and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day He rose again. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting. Amen.

On the “Our Father” beads:
(before each decade)
Eternal Father, I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your dearly beloved Son. Our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

On the “Hail Mary” beads:
(each decade)
For the sake of His sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

VII. The Divine Praises
Blessed be God. Blessed be His Holy Name. Blessed be Jesus Christ, true God and true man. Blessed be the name of Jesus. Blessed be His Most Sacred Heart, Blessed be His Most Precious Blood. Blessed be Jesus in the most Holy Sacrament of the Altar. Blessed be the Holy Spirit, the Paraclete. Blessed be the great Mother of God, Mary most holy. Blessed be her holy and Immaculate Conception. Blessed be her glorious Assumption. Blessed be the name of Mary, virgin and mother. Blessed be St. Joseph her most chaste spouse. Blessed be God in His angels and in His saints.

VIII. Prayer for Divine Mercy
O Greatly Merciful God, Infinite Goodness, today all mankind calls out from the abyss of its misery to Your mercy—to Your compassion, O God; and it is with its mighty voice of misery that it cries out. Gracious God, do not reject the prayer of this earth’s exiles! O Lord, Goodness beyond our understanding, who are acquainted with our desires, and by Your omnipotence of Your mercy shield us from the darts of our salvation’s enemies, that we may with confidence, as Your children, await Your final coming—that day known to You alone. And we expect to obtain everything promised us by Jesus in spite of all our wretchedness.

Concluding Doxology:
(after five decades)
Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world. (three times)

Optional Concluding Prayer
Eternal God, in whom mercy is endless and the treasury of compassion inexhaustible, look kindly upon us and increase Your mercy in us, that in difficult moments we might not despair nor become despondent, but with great confidence submit ourselves to Your holy will, which is Love and Mercy itself (Haur, 950).
